D A D A D A

D A

So you're sitting at the movies

D A G A

You're watching how the story finds a way

D A

And you've seen it all before

D A G A

Still you love to see the hero save the day

G

It's a window in the world

A D/F# G

A little glimpse of all the goodness getting through

Em D/F#

And all along the way

G A D A D A

The days are made of little moments of truth

D A

And every Sunday morning

D A G

You can see the people standing in a line

D A

They're so hungry for some mercy

D A G A

For a taste of the Communion bread and wine

G

It's a window in the world

A D/F# G

A little glimpse of all the goodness getting through

Em D/F#

And all along the way

G A D A

The days are made of little moments of truth

G
It's the way the clouds are burning
A
From the angle of the light
D D/F# G
As the earth is slowly turning you to meet it
Em
And you're watching at your window
A
At the ending of the night
D D/F# G
It's as plain as day so any fool could see it
A G A D/F# G A
It's a window in the world

D A
I can see the groom is waiting
D A G A
He's watching for the moment she appears
D A
They are laying down their lives for love
D A G A
And Love is laying waste to all my fears

G
It's a window in the world
A D/F# G
A little portal where you get a better view
Em D/F# G
And the wonder of it all is all you need
A D/F# G
To see the goodness getting through
Em D/F#
And all along the way
G A
The days are made of little moments
Em D/F# G
All along the way the road is paved
A D A D A D
With little moments of truth
